Admission School Types

- Reach Schools:
 - Highly selective acceptance rates
 - Admission stats are higher than your academic record.
- Match Schools:
 - Admission stats comparable to your academic stats and a higher acceptance rate.
- Safety Schools:
 - High admission rate or
 - Admission stats are below your academic record.

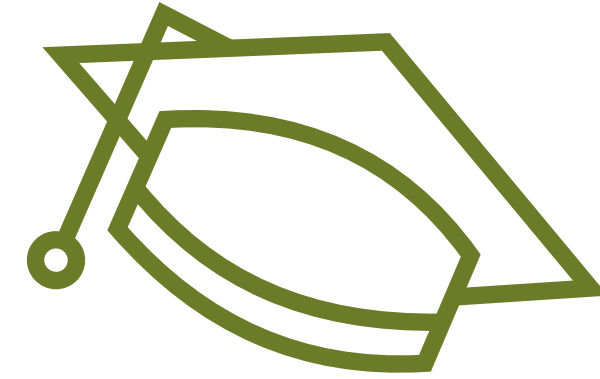

Types of Application:

Early Action: Earlier decision and a possible higher rate of acceptance.

Regular Admission Deadline: The last date to apply. The school will set a release date for admission notification.

Rolling Admission: Applicants receive admission decisions continually.

Starting the Application

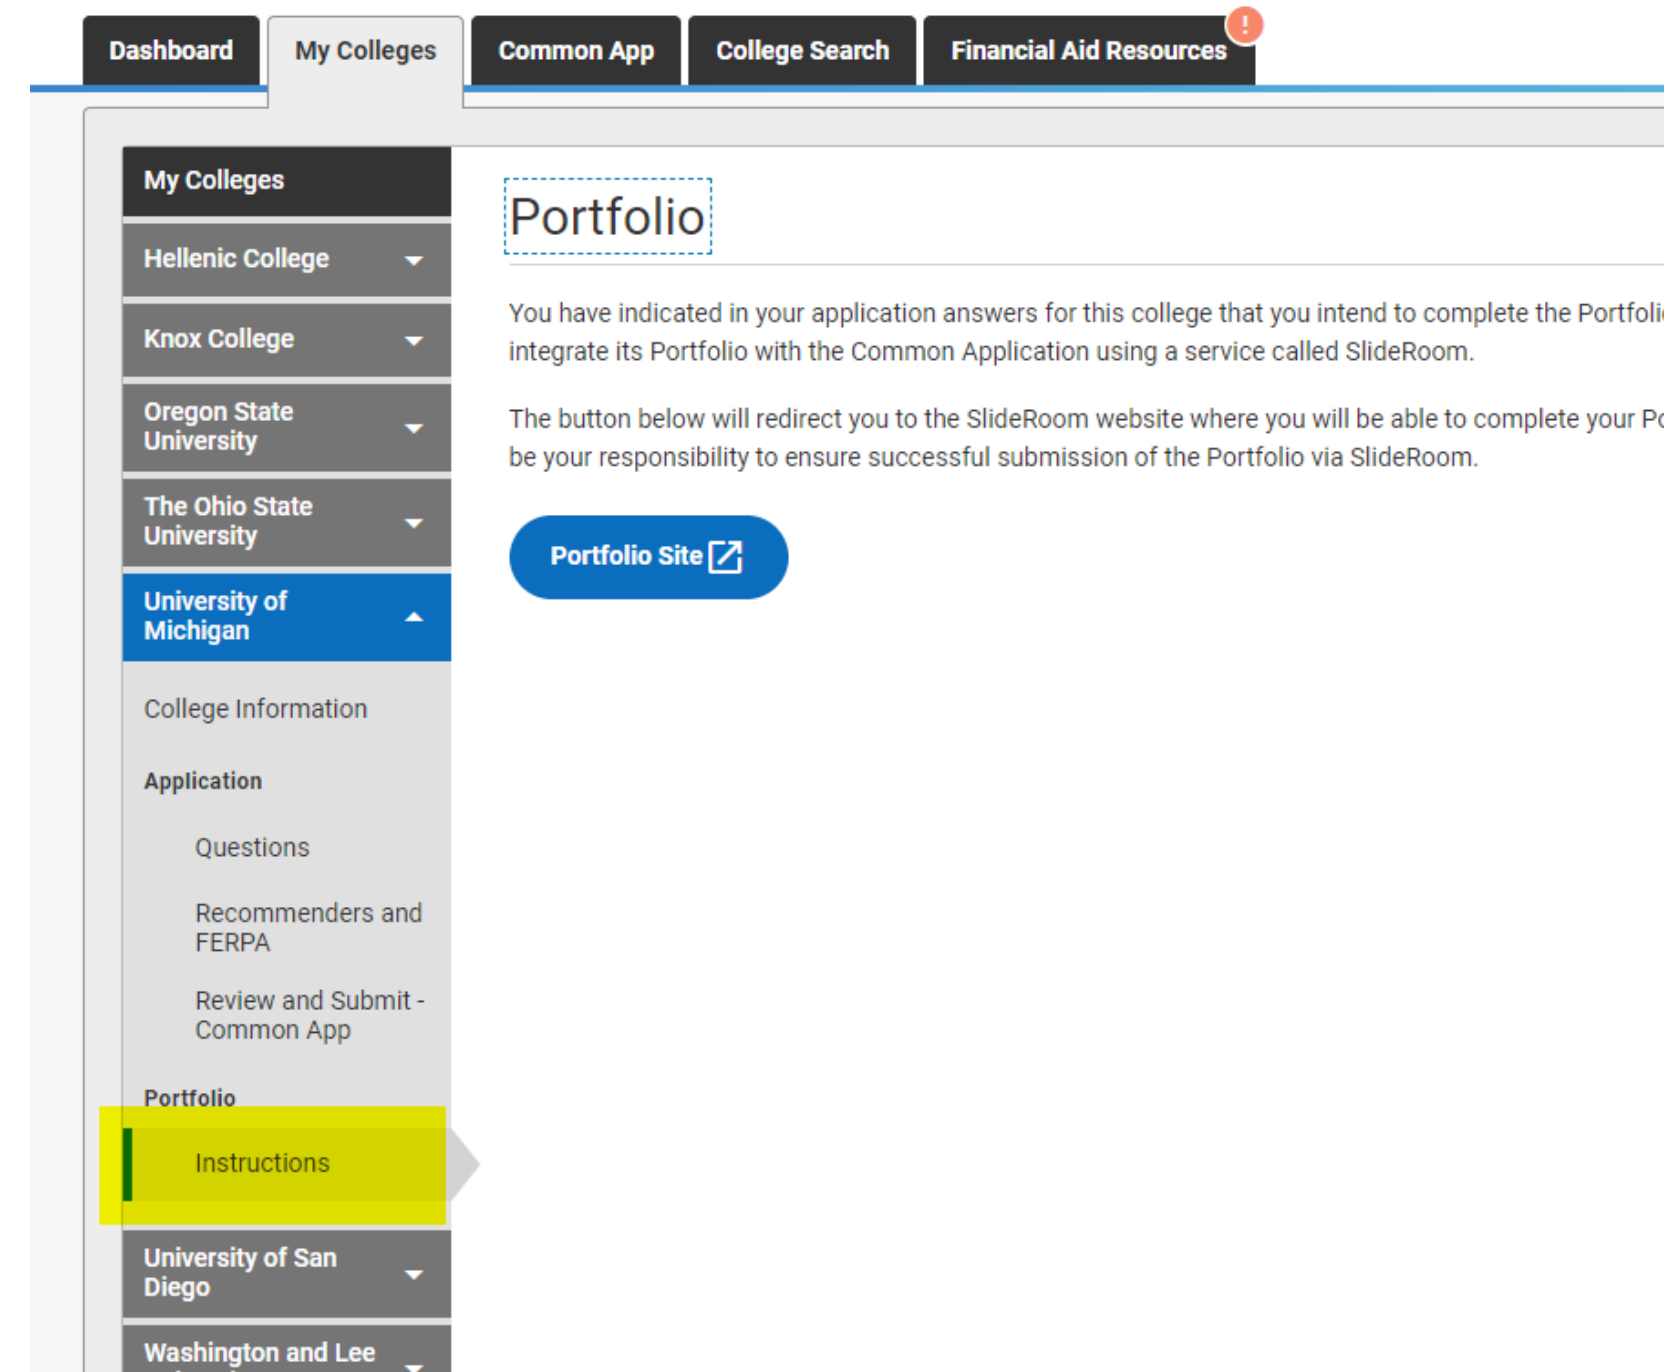

1 COMMON APP

Common App allows you to apply to many universities with one base application. Each university may be added and completed at a separate time.

Common App is not affiliated with the school, and counselors cannot see your Common App if it is not connected to the your Xello account.

2 DIRECT APPLICATION

Apply directly through the university admission webpage.

COMMON APP ESSAY

Any student applying through Common App must complete one of the Common App essay prompts. This is the most time-consuming part of the university application. Commonapp.com gives tips for success on the website.

Tips for Success:

- Be Authentic
- Grab your reader's attention
- Show, don't tell
- Be unique
- Read it aloud to catch errors
- End with a bang

SELF-REPORT OF GRADES

Most Florida public universities use the STAR to self-report grades (UCF uses the SPARK) as a required part of application completion.

How to self-report grades:

1. Find your transcript in Xello.
 - Hover over plans
 - Click “College Applications”
 - Click on your PDF under the Transcript header.
2. Create your STAR or SPARK (for UCF) account
3. Type courses and grades exactly how they appear in the transcript.
 - TCHS reports in letter grades
 - For 1.0 credit, it is a full-year course
 - For .5 credit, it is a semester course. Ex: English 1 reports grades in semesters. Select semester, and put in semester 1 and 2 grades.
 - If you took Algebra, Geometry, Biology, or US History in Florida (not AP level), these are full-year courses with one letter grade.
 - If you failed and retook a course, you must put both, as is documented on the transcript.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

- Register for the ACT, SAT, or CLT test, if needed.
- Keep your login and application information for each university portal organized. Keep a checklist or required tasks and make sure you complete all tasks in the portal.
- Send official test scores early, if needed. Some schools may take 30 days to process test scores.
- Know if a letter of recommendation is needed by checking your portal. Ask for letters of recommendation early in senior year to avoid the rush.
- Questions about your application? Call the university admissions department directly over asking a peer.
- Apply for Bright Futures and FAFSA when they open.
- Attend Fall Torotime workshops on STAR, Common App, Bright Future, etc, in the fall.
- Join the senior and school counseling Schoology page.
- Make an appointment with your counselor for help! Let us know when you need help!

WE ARE HERE TO HELP

TORO TIME

Counselors are in room 4-007 EVERY Toro Time during first semester to assist with college & career exploration, Common App, Xello, STARS, SPARK, Bright Futures (starting 10/1) and more. Come see us!

BEFORE SCHOOL

Send us a Schoology message if you need help before school starts or during the school day, as appointments are not available during senior meeting weeks.

START YOUR SCHOLARSHIP SEARCH

1 XELLO SCHOLARSHIPS

- Complete your scholarship profile in Xello to find scholarships based on demographics, major, financial status, affiliations, etc...
- Search for and “Heart” scholarships to save and complete.

2 CHECK SCHOOLOGY

Any local scholarships will be posted on the School Counselor page on Schoology.

3 UNIVERSITY WEBSITES

The financial aid office at the post-secondary university may have scholarships for its institution.

BRIGHT FUTURES SCHOLARSHIP

- The Bright Futures application opens October 1, 2025.
- There is eligibility-based criteria for each scholarship award.
- All seniors receive a copy of their early evaluation in their senior meetings with their counselor.
- Bright Futures award notification can take place in March if all requirements are met. Do not delay!
- Students may test to satisfy test score requirements until August 31, 2026. Only submit science if it helps for Bright Futures.
- You must send test scores to a public university to be received by Bright Futures. It must be the individual test scores, not the superscore report.

SUBMIT VOLUNTEER AND WORK HOURS

- While submission of volunteer and work hours is not required for graduation, it is required to attain certain Bright Futures Scholarships.
- Hours are only submitted twice a year to Bright Futures, after each semester! Get your hours in by the end of the first semester, or they will not be sent until the end of the second semester.
- Full instructions on volunteer/work hours procedures, and the reflection form are available on the Toco School Counseling webpage: <https://www-tchs.stjohns.k12.fl.us/guidance/community-service/>

1

Collect your paperwork.

Volunteer Work:
Documentation on the non-profit organization's letterhead that includes your name, dates of service, hours worked, and a description of service.

Work Hours:
Documentation consists of pay stubs that include hours worked.

2

Attach your reflection form.

- Must be completed for both community service and work hours.
- Download and print this form from the Toco school counseling website.

3

Record and Submit.

- Make a copy or take a photo for your records in case of any discrepancy.
- Submit the physical copy of the paperwork and the reflection to your counseling office. No electronic submission, please.
