

Meet Ms. Wagaman

Favorites:

Author: Jane Austen, CS Lewis

Class in High School: History

Artists or Athletes: Luke Combs, Morgan Wallen, CJ Hobgood, Kelia Moniz

Hobbies: Surfing, fishing, shooting, country concerts, reading, house projects, spending time with family and friends

About Me:

Ms. Wagaman grew up on an island off the coast of New Jersey. She earned her Bachelors in History from Hillsdale College and her Masters in Special Education from Liberty University.

Before becoming an ESE Teacher, Aubrie worked in the business world for eight years in Virginia and Arkansas. She then served as a Paraprofessional for three years in New Jersey and Virginia before becoming a full-time teacher here in Florida.

During her free time, you will most likely find Aubrie at the beach, surfing, or spending time with her family and friends. She also enjoys exploring and trying new things, going on road trips with the country music blaring, and working on her house!

"The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing." – Edmund Burke

Personal Mission Statement:

"We are all uniquely gifted in some way. Learning is a life-long journey. It is our job and privilege to make sure every child knows this, and to provide them with the tools and support needed to learn, critically think and grow to their fullest potential."