

Toro Nation,

We hope you and your Toro family weathered the storm well and your home was not affected by our most recent string of storms. Please review the information below to help support a Toro/Panther family in need as well as getting ready for Senior activities!

GoFundMe for the Fagan Family!

TCHS and Nease beloved Marine Science teaching family, Mr. and Mrs. Fagan are facing some tough times ahead as Mr. Fagan, who teaches at Toco, has been diagnosed with stage 4 colon cancer and is on FMLA and the family is now dependent on Mrs. Fagan's income. Nease has created a Go Fund Me account to help them with all their medical bills and family needs to get through this difficult time. Here is the link if you would like to help support this beloved TCHS/Nease family. Mr. Fagan helped to open TCHS, loves teaching Earth/Space and Marine Biology and helped to coach our TCHS Toros to our first Golf District Championship. Mrs. Fagan has been teaching at Nease for 20 years and is the sponsor for Marathon High and has given so much of herself over the years to her students and the TCHS/Nease community. Let's unite and show them true TORO and PANTHER LOVE!

11th Annual Santa Suits on the Loose SK
The 11th Annual Santa Suits on the Loose SK presented by Bozard Ford, to benefit St. Augustine Youth Services (SAYS), is a walk/jog/run that will be held on December 10, 2022. It begins at the St. Augustine Pier at 8 AM. The race follows a flat 3.1 mile course through St. Augustine Beach neighborhoods. Last year participation was roughly 1200 "Santa" themed runners, making it the 3rd largest race in St. Johns County. This year race organizers expect an even larger turn-out.

Registration is LIVE at www.racesmith.com. Price per participant is $35 through December 9th. Race morning registrations increase to $40. Race registration includes your choice of a Santa Suit or a T-shirt, finisher medal and lots of holiday cheer! Awards are presented to top finishers. The race also features a Community Team Challenge and a School Team Challenge. Groups with the most amount of runners receive a travelling trophy to keep for the year.

All race proceeds are used to directly support SAYS' youth mental health programs and help provide "normal life experiences" to our residential foster kids and those with mental health diagnosis and non-traditional families, especially during the holidays.

What Makes This Year Special?
This year the logo was custom designed by Taylor Hillyard, a first year student at Flagler College. He donated his talent and time to design a logo and characters that the race can utilize year after year. He will also be a participant in the race.

Additionally, race founder Mary Jacobs will be joining everyone at the Start/Finish line. Her return is an honor and a great way to celebrate the success of Santa Suits on the Loose and its contribution to SAYS.

The committee is working hard on more entertainment, fun and cheer. The 2022 race is expected to be TREE-mendous.

Thank you for your support and keeping SAYS' mission in your heart

A festive poster for the Toys for Tots Competition. At the top, a row of colorful Christmas ornaments (blue, red, yellow, green) hangs across the width. Below them, a teddy bear wearing a blue sailor's uniform and a white cap with a gold anchor emblem holds a red banner that reads "TOYS FOR TOTS". To the left of the bear is a holly leaf with red berries. The main text area is enclosed in a dashed-line border. It begins with "Help Toco WIN the High School Toys for Tots Collection Competition!" followed by the dates "October 25 - December 2" in a bold, italicized font. Below this, it says "Donate packaged toys to collection bins found in the Main Office or The Hub". A section titled "Rules on Type of Toys:" lists two rules: "-Toys must be new and unwrapped" and "-Clothing, food, and toy guns (including nerf guns) are not accepted". Further down, it states "Each packaged toy donated gives you one entry into the drawings for prizes. Simone's will be catering lunch for the top donators." and includes a small logo for Simone's. Below that, under the heading "Free Ticket:", it says "Come out on Dec 2 to the Home Basketball Opening Game and receive FREE Admittance when a toy is donated!". The bottom of the poster features a large green Christmas tree on the left, a cartoon illustration of a tiger wearing a Santa hat in the center, and another holly leaf on the right. At the very bottom, a row of logos for the supporting businesses is displayed, including Edible Arrangements, BeautyMark, Café Cairano, Wawa, Pizza Hut, Orangetheory, St. Mary's Seafood, Jeremiah's Italian Ice, Ruby Tuesday, Willie Jewels, Taco Bell, Shell, China Sun, The Village Chiropractic, Blue Wave Nurtirition, Gator's Dockside, Posh Nails, Coldstone Creamery, Dominoes, Hair Mechanix, Tropical Smoothie Café, Pirate Pizza, Dollar General, Simone's, and Publix.

Insider's Guide to College admissions

College admissions tests are important. They do more than just help your child get into college.

They can help your child win merit-based scholarships, and a good score never hurt anybody's college application. It can even be the deciding factor between being granted admission or not.

When we say "college admissions tests," we're not just talking SAT® and ACT®. AP® Exams and IB® tests are college admissions tests too!

In this free webinar, a Revolution Prep team member who's helped hundreds of high school students get into college shares insider tips and tricks and gives an overview of each test so you can develop a test-prep plan with your child.
