OUR TRADITION

Toro Nation, Mama Mia takes the stage next Friday, Saturday and Sunday with evening and matinee performances for your family to enjoy. Besides being a FANTASTIC musical to enjoy, this event is a major fundraiser for our Theatre Department. We hope you and your family will join in on the fun. Click here to purchase tickets!

Final touches on the Senior Courtyard will be complete soon with students seniors being able to access this area by the end of next week.

 St. Augustine Amphitheater

All graduating Seniors are allotted 10 free general admission tickets for graduation. General admission seats are located in sections 200-304 of the amphitheater and will fill on first come-first serve basis. If you wish to exchange general admission tickets for Reserved Seating in the preferred sections of the amphitheater, you may purchase a Reserved Seating Package.

"Horns Up" Reserved Seating Package Includes (per seat):

- Reserved seating in preferred section of the Amphitheater - Sections 101/03
- Kepsako handhold fan
- Kepsako program
- Bottle of water

How it works:

- Reserved seating sections are the closest you can get to your graduate(s) and the stage.
- Purchase seats for $25 each online at the link below - 4 seat minimum order. Orders of less than 4 seats will not be processed. Follow instructions provided and include all required information. Seats are sold first come - first serve.
- Seats for hearing/visually impaired plus one companion are available in a designated area of the reserved seating area at no charge. Please note that other members of your party in the reserved seating area may or may not be located in the immediate vicinity of this designated area.
- Specific seat numbers are not available at time of purchase. Seat numbers will be assigned prior to ticket issue. Tickets, including free general admission tickets, will be included in your student's graduation package which will be provided to Seniors on May 19th upon completion of debt day.
- Total seats in the General Admission, Reserved, and Hearing/Visually impaired seating areas may not exceed 10 per graduate. Families with more than one graduating senior may need to place more than one order.

Are you interested in teaching and learning?

Consider taking the Future Educators course as an elective!

The future educators elective course will provide students with knowledge and experiences (hello field studies!) that develop qualities essential to teaching and learning. Through preteaching experiences that are both exploratory and experiential in nature, students will develop an appreciation and deep understanding of education.

Future Educators Class Interest Survey

Debate is now an option for an honors credit elective (4.5 GPA points)!

In Debate you will:

- Improve your public speaking skills through learning different styles of communication.
- Increase your research skills. (A great class to take before or with AP Capstone Courses.)
- Increase your critical thinking skills.
- Improve your self-esteem and confidence.
- Strengthen your leadership and team building skills.
- Learn about different types of speech and debate: Lincoln Douglas, Congressional, Public Forum, Extemporaneous, etc.
- Give you the ability to compete at Civics and Debate Tournaments in the area!

Use the QR code if you are interested in seeing if the class will fit in your schedule!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Volunteers needed for upcoming testing! Anyone with free time is encouraged to check out the sign-up genius linked here. There are plenty of slots that vary in length as well as time of day so if you can spare some time, TCHS would be happy to fill it.

Assistant Principal, Kelly Foss, will confirm your volunteer slot as well as basic information via e-mail, shortly after you register. A HUGE THANK YOU in advance to anyone who can help us out.

The current TCHS PTSO Board welcomes all of our parents and grandparents to a candidate meet and greet on Monday, April 24th at 6pm in the HUB. Take an opportunity to meet the individuals running and share your ideas for next year. Light refreshments will be served.

GUIDANCE INFORMATION

Attention Juniors:

During the week of April 17th, the school counseling team went into Junior English classes to help students “find their fit” in selecting the appropriate colleges to apply to as well as how to apply to them.

Parents can view the presentation as well as other college planning resources here. The classroom presentation is titled “Full Applying to College Presentation- Class of 2024”. This is a great page to bookmark as we will continue to post resources for our rising seniors here.

We also recommend these two bookmarks as well: Bright Futures and Transcripts.

You have an opportunity to start your senior year with a college acceptance!

UNF is hosting their annual "Apply in July" event on July 29th.

Registration is now open and historically fills quickly! Learn more and register here.

Senior English teachers gave students a copy of their Bright Futures evaluations. These evaluations are based on their first semester grades, test scores, and community service hours. Please review the evaluation and make sure that everything looks accurate to you. If you have any questions about your eligibility or the accuracy of the report, please reach out to your school counselor.

Students who participate in the free and/or reduced lunch program are eligible for a standardized test waiver. Please see your school counselor for additional information.

TCHS CAREER ACADEMIES

Congratulations to the 94 students who earned an industry certification in our first round of testing. The next round of testing will take place on April 25th and will include all students in a CTE course with the exception of the healthcare academy, this includes Digital Video Technologies, Digital Art Imaging, the Academy of Innovation in the Built Environment (all levels), the Academy of Leadership in Emerging Technologies (level 2 only), and Foundations of Programming.

SENIORS: May 15th will be the Academy Senior Signing Day. This is an event to celebrate seniors who are going straight into the workforce upon graduation in a job related to their academy field OR seniors who are pursuing post-secondary education (2-year, 4-year, or certificate programs) related to their academy field. Sign up for the event using the link posted in your academy schoology group. Academy senior scholarship applications are also live. Use the link posted in your academy schoology group to apply for a scholarship sponsored by academy business partners. Academy Scholarship applications are due no later than April 12th.

Northrop Grumman is offering paid internships for students interested in careers in aerospace. Check out the flyer for more information. This could be a great opportunity for students who have Co-Op in the afternoon next year.

Upcoming Events:

- April 24th- Healthcare Academy Summer Internship Interviews
- April 25th- Certification Testing
- April 28th- ACE Awards and Presentations
- April 28th- Flagler Hospital Graduation Celebration

Be sure to check out the APRIL edition of the Academy Newsletter to see everything your students are working on in the career academies, see student shoutouts, and more!

SOCIAL STUDIES TEXTBOOK ADOPTION

The St. Johns County School District has begun the review process for the Social Studies Instructional Materials Adoption. Once available for review, the digital resources will be posted here and available for review. The core resources that have been submitted for evaluation were selected from the state adoption consideration lists when available. Additional resources for advanced programs may be reviewed from materials listed as appropriate for the program indicated.

Some print materials may be available for review. If you would like access to the available printed materials or require assistance reviewing the online resources, please call the Instructional Resources and Media Services office at 904.547.3947. Materials are available for review from 8:30 AM – 4:00 PM when district offices are open.

We encourage parent and community participation in our adoption process. If you would like to serve on a school committee and formally review the resources as a part of the school review team, please contact any school or our office at 904.547.3947 by April 21, 2023. Committee membership is limited. School administrators will select the appropriate number of reviewers from the list of interested participants.
