

Are you interested in teaching and learning?

Consider taking the Future Educators course as an elective!

The future educators elective course will provide students with knowledge and experiences (hello field studies!) that develop qualities essential to teaching and learning. Through preteaching experiences that are both exploratory and experiential in nature, students will develop an appreciation and deep understanding of education.

Future Educators Class Interest
Suvey

